KEY NOTE SPEAKER

Karine Diedrich- Keynote Speaker

Karine is Vice-President, Public Engagement and Knowledge Mobilization for Volunteer Canada. She has over ten years' experience managing the development of key deliverables and cross-sector partnerships to advance national strategies and initiatives. She also acquired experience in strategic communications and marketing as an Associate at APCO Worldwide, an international communications and public affairs consulting firm. She is the Partnerships and Sponsorships Lead for Hacking Health Ottawa, one of 45 chapters around the globe working to transform healthcare by connecting healthcare professionals with designers, developers, innovators and entrepreneurs to build realistic solutions to frontline healthcare problems. She has a BA in Criminology from Carleton University and a Professional Certificate in Partnership Management from the Norman Patterson School of International Affairs (NPSIA).

Karine will be speaking on the topics of Volunteering and the SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals) and The Value of Volunteering (based on last year's work with the Conference Board of Canada and the Volunteering Wheel).
